DETAILED ACTION

This office action is in response to an amendment filed 11/19/09. Claim 49 is pending.

Claim Objections

Claims 49 and 50 are objected to because of the following informalities: Claim 49 requires a number of minor amendments.

Claim 49 is directed to a method of delivering a therapeutic or antigenic protein or peptide to an individual. However, the claim does not subsequently refer to this protein or peptide. Secondly, the coding sequences should be operably linked to expression control sequences. Thirdly, articles are required prior to "antigenic protein" in line 1, "host cell" and pharmaceutical composition in line 4 and the article "the" prior to "heterologous nucleic acid" in line 7. As well, the recitation "said vector being packaged" does not indicate how this step happens.

Overall, the claim should be amended such,

"A method of delivering a therapeutic or an antigenic protein or peptide to an individual comprising: administering to the individual an effective amount of a chimaeric virus comprising a heterologous nucleic acid sequence encoding the therapeutic or the antigenic protein or peptide under control of an expression control sequences, or a vector system, a host cell, or a pharmaceutical composition comprising said chimaeric virus thereof, wherein the chimaeric virus is produced by a method comprising culturing a host cell which comprises one or more Simian Immunodeficiency Virus (SIV) nucleic acid sequences encoding capable of producing an SIV capsid under control of expression control sequences and which further comprises a vector comprising a Human Immunodeficiency Virus type 2 (HIV-2) packaging signal and a the heterologous nucleic acid sequence; wherein said culturing results in said vector being packaged in the SIV capsid to produce the chimaeric virus."

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 49 and 50 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Allen et al (US 20060067948; see entire document). This is a new rejection.

Allen et al teach methods of making a virus wherein the method utilizes a vector comprising an HIV-2 packaging signal and a heterologous nucleic acid and sequences encoding an SIV envelope (see e.g. ¶ 0050, 0054 and 0059). The heterologous gene encodes a variety of therapeutic proteins or peptides (see e.g. ¶ 0072). The virus is administered to humans for example (see e.g. ¶ 0076).
